

The Hellenic Society Prometheas

Invites you to a musical journey with:

Spyros Koliavasilis and the “Mortes”

Over one year ago, Prometheas hosted a musical journey by Spyros Koliavasilis and the “Mortes”, which brought many memories to all of us. This year, we embark on yet another musical journey and Spyros and the “Mortes” will take us to places we love and music we have cherished. From the Greek Islands to the mainland; Athens, Roumeli, Epirus, Macedonia and on. We'll enjoy songs we know, including Rebetika, Laika, Paradosiaka, and Nisiotika, as well as learn about our musical heritage of the era. We'll reminisce with Tsitsanis, Vamvakaris, Kaldaras, Mitropanos and other well known names of those times!

The program will conclude with mezedes, wine and refreshments

Tickets: Adults $25.00; Children $5.00

Tickets are presold, seats are limited; for tickets please call:
Lefteris Karmiris at 301-229-9389, Eric DeVaris at 301-270-2505,
Spyros Koliavasilis at 240-731-0147, or Barbara Kakaes at 703-319-1528

Friday, May 18th, 2012 at 8:00 pm.
St. George Greek Orthodox Church, Founders Hall
7701 Bradley Boulevard, Bethesda, MD 20817