Lecture on the Prespes Pre-Agreement by Dr. Nikos Lygeros

On Friday, October 12th, the Coordination Committee for Macedonia Issue Awareness-Washington, DC hosted a lecture on the Macedonian issue and the Prespes Pre-Agreement which was signed on June 17, 2018 by Greece and FYROM (Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia).

The speaker, Dr. Nikos Lygeros, a well-known professor and geopolitical strategist, spoke to a packed room, offering a strategic analysis of the articles of the Prespes Pre-Agreement, which, if ratified, will have dire consequences for Greece and the region. The event was well attended by Presidents of the Greek-American Societies of the area who provided their support and without whom this event would not have been possible. These Societies are the Alexander the Great Macedonian Association of MD, The Evrytanian Association of America-Velouchi, the Hellenic Society Prometheas, the Laconian Society, and the Roumeliotes Society. Also in attendance were representatives of the Pan-Macedonian Association of the United States and people from a wide variety of backgrounds who consider the issue central to Greece's national interest and to the peace and stability in the region and are, therefore, greatly concerned.

GREEK LIVES MATTER

THE PANEPIROTIC FEDERATION CONDEMNS KILLING OF ETHNIC GREEK BY ALBANIAN POLICE

The Panepirotic Federation of America strongly condemns the senseless killing of an ethnic Greek by Albanian police in Northern Epiros on Sunday and calls for an internationally supervised investigation to determine how he died.

Konstantinos Katsifas, 35, raised a Greek flag at a cemetery holding the remains of Greek soldiers from World War II near the town of Vouliarati as Greeks celebrated the heroic resistance of Greece to the invasion of Fascist forces on Oct. 28, 1940. When Albanian police moved to take it down, Albanian authorities say he fired at a police van with a Kalashnikov rifle and fled to the nearby hills.

Albanian authorities then launched a massive manhunt with a helicopter hovering overhead while police and special forces combed the hills for Katsifas. They claim that when they cornered him and asked him to surrender, he fired at them and they shot him dead.

“Knowing the hostility with which Albanian authorities have persecuted ethnic Greeks in the past, the official Albanian account is hard to believe and we call for a full and open international investigation of this senseless killing,” stated Nicholas Gage, president of the Panepirotic Federation, which represents Greek-Americans from the region of Epiros, half which is in Greece and the other half within the southern border of Albania.

“It is obvious that Katsifas, despite the flash of anger that overtook him when police took down the Greek flag, did not intend to injure anyone because he fired at an empty police van, not at any officers,” Mr. Gage said. “And it is highly unlikely that he would have chosen to shoot it out with the massive forces pursuing him rather than surrender.”

He pointed out that ethnic Greeks have been falsely imprisoned, beaten and harassed by Albanian authorities for years and called on the Greek government, the European Union and the United States to pressure Albania to provide the ethnic Greek minority the basic rights and protection due them under international agreements Albania has signed but never enforced.
