η Ρόζα της Σμύρνης

Rosa of Smyrna

Dimitris, an avid collector of Greek objects from Asia Minor, prepares a cultural exhibition for a renowned museum in Athens on the mix of nationalities who lived in Smyrna (Izmir) before the genocide there. On a trip to Smyrna with his girlfriend Rita and the museum curator, he finds something special in a small antique shop - a Greek wedding dress that is stained with blood with a letter to a girl called Rosa sewn into its hem. These items, plus an old photograph, become the basis of an intriguing story from the past. A powerful love that survives decades.
