

THE HELLENIC SOCIETY PROMETHEAS

celebrates

GREEK LETTERS DAY (Day of the Three Hierarchs)

with greetings by

H.E. Ambassador of Greece to the United States,

ALEXANDRA PAPADOPOULOU

and

Secretary General for Public Diplomacy and Greeks Abroad,

Hellenic Ministry of Foreign Affairs

DR. IOANNIS CHRYSOULAKIS

to be followed by a presentation by our Guest Speaker

DIMOSTHENIS-DIMITRIOS DESPOTIDIS

14-year old Dimosthenis-Dimitrios Despotidis, winner of the first prize of the Never Such Innocence International Poetry and Art Competition, will talk about his first collection of poems, "Searching for My Footsteps," published in Greek and English last year, relating to his life experiences that influenced his writings. The book also contains a special tribute to the 200th anniversary of the Greek War of Independence and an Hymn for the International Day of the Greek Language.

Greetings from students of Greek schools of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area

SUNDAY, JANUARY 30, 2022

14:00 EST, 21:00 (GREEK TIME)

Follow the link below to attend the presentation:

<https://rebrand.ly/greeklettersday>

THE HELLENIC SOCIETY PROMETHEAS, INC.

6506 BELLS MILL ROAD

BETHESDA, MD 20817

(301) 229-9389

WWW.PROMETHEAS.ORG