

THE HELLENIC SOCIETY PROMETHEAS

invites you to the annual

GREEK LETTERS DAY Day of the Three Hierarchs

with a presentation by our Guest Speaker

LILLIAN DOHERTY, PH.D.

Professor Emerita, Classics University of Maryland

“Friendship and Poetry: Philia in a Poem of George Seferis”

Written in 1942, “Stratis Thalassinos among the Agapanthi” is a meditation on the Seferis’ separation from the land and friends he loved during World War II, using allusions to the loss of Odysseus’s comrades in the Odyssey. Professor Doherty will speak about how her deep appreciation of the poem culminated in her study of it for the modern Greek class she is attending at the University of Maryland.

Followed by the Presentation of The Hellenic Society Prometheas Hellenic Language and Culture Awards

to Students of Greek Schools of the Wash. D. C. Metropolitan Area and a Reception
