invites you to a presentation by

MIKE EMANUEL

Chief Washington correspondent / Anchor for FOX News Channel (FNC)

Taking My Faith with me as I travel the Globe

A discussion on the interaction with the Greek community, important aspects of cultural and religious themes that shaped and continue to influence his personality and professional choices, and how they affect his daily work.

Mike Emanuel joined FNC in 1997 as a Los Angeles-based correspondent, and he currently anchors the Sunday 1pm Eastern program “FOX NEWS LIVE”. He has covered both House and Senate proceedings, the confirmation hearings for the Trump and Biden Cabinets, as well as the hearings for President Trump’s three Supreme Court nominees. He also covered Secretary Hillary Clinton’s 2016 presidential campaign, reported on key congressional races, and President Barack Obama’s 2012-2016 State of the Union addresses from Capitol Hill, among other events. During his tenure at FNC, Emanuel has provided live coverage of many national and international stories, including national elections, several tours of Afghanistan, the 2005 Iraqi elections from Baghdad, and the execution of former dictator Saddam Hussein.

Emanuel was also invested as Archon in 2009 and conferred with the offikion Hypomnematografos. He has served on the Parish Council of St George. Previously he was GOYA President, Sunday School Teacher, and a choir member at Holy Trinity. He also has been the GOYA President of the Holy Metropolis of New Jersey and served as Master of Ceremony for the 2006 Patriarchal Banquet and the 2008 Archon and Clergy Laity Grand Banquets.

Wine and light refreshments will be offered following the presentation
